Methodist Hospital of Kentucky

PIKEVILLE, KENTUCKY

The Kentucky Conference, together with our friends in Ohio, have been answering the "Macedonian Cry" for help which came to them from the mountains of Kentucky in a most practical way. The Hospital pictured above has been administering to the bodies, minds, and spirits of thousands of people during the past five years.

We have come to the last, long hard pull in our efforts to retire the bonded indebtedness of the Institution. Kentucky's part of the balance to be raised is $18,500.00.

The Conference accepted a program which calls for the raising and sending direct to the Hospital this fall the amount of 15 per cent of the cash salary of each pastor in the bounds of Ashland, Barbourville, and Covington Districts. In addition to this, one-third of the World Service apportionment from each church in the entire Conference is to be sent as a special designated gift to the Board of Hospitals, Homes and Deaconess Work, 740 Rush Street, Chicago, Illinois, to be applied on the above $18,500.00.

Reports

(a) DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

ASHLAND DISTRICT

E. R. Overley, District Superintendent

We have had a reasonably good year on the Ashland District. Have not taken things by storm, but have steadily moved along and made some progress. We report 346 conversions, 92 reclamations, 60 sanctifications, 259 additions. There should be a net increase of approximately 175. The men of our district have all labored faithfully and have been loyal in every particular. God bless them, they all deserve special mention.

Advance.—Charles Mitchell has had a good year at Advance. This is a growing community and the outlook for our church is the very best.

Ashland, First Church, is making progress under the leadership of E. P. Hall. This old historic church, which was burdened a few years ago with an indebtedness of $109,000, now has its head above water and is attracting the attention of people of Ashland because of the work it is doing and the splendid program that is being put on. Bro. Hall has inaugurated a plan that is gradually liquidating the remaining indebtedness without any individual or set of individuals feeling it so much because the entire church and constituency are given an opportunity to contribute something toward it.

Ashland, Second Church, is doing a splendid piece of work with J. H. Burden as pastor. A campaign was put on this year that has taken care of their indebtedness of $6,000, and instead of paying it off over a period of years through the building loan, it is being done in twelve months from the time the campaign was put on. Bro. Burden led a delegation of thirty-seven to the Ruggles Epworth League Institute and carried away all the prizes and loving cups.

Catlettsburg.—A. G. Cox has labored faithfully and conscientiously at Catlettsburg and is held in the highest esteem by his church and the people in general, because of the life he lives.

East Point.—R. L. Smith, a supply on the East Point Charge, has held revivals in all of his churches, made an enviable record for himself in Mayo Academy in his first-year high-school work, and has done a splendid piece of work in general in this very difficult field.

Fullerton.—N. G. Griswold has had one of the best years of all his ministry on the Fullerton Charge. He reports 158 conversions. He will ask to retire this time.

Gallup.—Two local preachers, Wm. Burgess and Sylvester Ball, have been in charge of the work of the Gallup Circuit. They have given a good account of themselves and the Lord has crowned their labors with success.

Germantown.—O. P. Baugh reports a good year on the Germantown Charge. His labors have been blessed with splendid results.

Greenup.—Wm. Kelley has about accomplished what seemed impossible for some years at Wurtland on the Greenup Charge, and yet was needed so much. A new church building is under roof and will soon be dedicated at a cost of about $5,000.

Louisa.—V. E. Fryman in his three years' work at Louisa has made this church one of the most desirable appointments in the Big Sandy Valley. Progress has been made along all lines.

Maysville, East.—A. W. Insko has completed four years' work on the East Maysville Charge, and the Lord has blessed his ministry. A new parsonage has been built and the whole charge strengthened in every way. Mrs. Insko, after a long siege of ill health and suffering and hospital experience, is recovering.

Third Street.—Old Third Street Church, under the leadership of J. Ralph Wood, has been dressed up in new clothes. They had their reopening last Sunday. The writer preached for them at the morning service and Dr. L. R. Akers in the evening. Bro. Wood and his people were so happy and proud of their church. Bro. Wood and his people have had a great year.

Melrose.—E. F. Burnside was appointed last fall to Melrose Community, a new town of forty homes without a church. He had neither building nor organization. A new church was dedicated in January at a cost of a little over $5,000. The indebtedness amounts to approximately only $900. We now have three new churches almost within sight of each other in that fast-growing section—Russell, Melrose, and Wurtland.

Mt. Olivet.—Bro. Muncy has had a reasonably good year considering the fact that he has been handicapped by sickness in his own home. Mrs. Muncy is in very poor health and has not been able to do anything the most of the year. The latter part of the summer his daughter took sick with pneumonia and had a long siege of it.

Mt. Zion.—Ezra Polley has labored faithfully on the Mt. Zion Charge as a local preacher, and is with us expecting and planning to give his whole life to the ministry.

Olive Hill.—E. N. Early has worked hard and faithfully at Olive Hill, and has made some progress. His people are very much in love with him.

Paintsville.—Thos. B. Ashley has had one of the biggest years of all his ministry. He is one of the hardest workers and comes as nearly putting his program over in detail as any man in the Kentucky Conference. Dr. Akers, President of Asbury College, was with us last winter in a revival meeting, and forty of the finest young people in Paintsville were soundly converted.

Pikeville.—You heard O. J. Polley's report. No better was given in this Conference floor, comparatively speaking. It speaks for itself. Polley can't sleep until the job is done.

Pike County Parish.—Bro. Murrell is still on the job doing things for the Lord. He is especially fitted for parish work and is doing the job in a splendid way.

H. H. Kahlo has done a splendid piece of work in Pike County, known as the Pond Creek Circuit.

Russell.—W. W. Shepherd has had the best year of the four he has spent at Russell. After serving nine years as a district superintendent he came to Russell and has done the thing that seemed impossible. That beautiful new church, worth $50,000, will stand as a monument to him and his good people for years to come.

Saylorsville.—O. C. Sims was appointed to Saylorsville last fall. He became a sick man, was operated upon for appendicitis, and came very nearly suffering a nervous breakdown. He was compelled to give up his work. C. H. Rayl has been supplying since he left. The indebtedness has all been paid. The work is going splendidly under Bro. Rayl.

Sardis.—Bro. Swann has been invited back for the fifth year on the Sardis Charge. The work is on the upward grade. They are planning for a new church at Sardis. If you will consult the Minutes for the last four years you will find that progress has been made that speaks for itself. An increase along all lines.

Tollesboro has made steady progress under Bro. Hill for years. Brothers, long pastorates are the ones that count. Bro. Hill has had by far the best year of the four. They want him back.

R. M. Harrison has given a good account of himself at Vanceburg. One church has been resuscitated on the charge, known as Walnut Grove, under his ministry, and is now doing good work and serving the community where there was no church of any denomination. Bro. Harrison had had a splendid year.

Wallingford.—Bro. Geo Ammerman has been blessed and used of the Lord on the Wallingford Charge. Mrs. Ammerman is recovering from a long sick spell and hospital experience. But, with this heavy burden upon him, Bro. Ammerman has done the work of a prophet.

BARBOURVILLE DISTRICT

C. E. Vogel, District Superintendent

Bishop Smith and Brethren of the Kentucky Conference:

The Barbourville District comprises thirty-two counties in the southeastern portion of the State, where Kentucky's mountains proudly rear their highest peaks toward heaven, rich in scenic grandeur, boasting both Cumberland Gap, with its far-famed pinnacle, and Cumberland Falls, the Niagara of the South. Methodism has here one of its richest fields for the development of the kingdom of God.

In this district are located Kentucky Conference's only college, and the three mountain school centers: Linda, the seat of Henderson Settlement School; Line Fork, the home of Kingdom Come, and Booneville, Owsley County's only high school. It is here, too, where the Knox County Agricultural Project is being worked out co-operatively by Union College and the county agent, Mr. Earl Mayhew.

By railway, national and State highways one can reach practically every section of the district, but leading into the vast outlying portions are the crudest dirt and bowlder roads in the State. Into some of these parts an automobile cannot be driven even during the dry summer months.

Very splendid work has been done on the Barbourville District by the loyal pastors who have given such hearty co-operation, and whose fellowship has been a veritable inspiration. Their reports will embody these results in the main. However, there are some things deserving of special mention.

There have been reported 743 conversions and 136 sanctifications. More than 225 adults and nearly 50 infants were baptized. There were 476 received into the membership of the church.

The women of the district have had no small share in the progress of the work. There are 459 women enrolled in Ladies' Aid Societies and their activities and accomplishments have been many and most worthy. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society reports 297 members who have sent more than $1,000 to foreign fields.

Church schools and Epworth Leagues are reporting substantial gains. The churches all over the district are beginning to take seriously their obligations to the boys and girls. Nevertheless, there are yet many rural churches that have no program whatever for the young people, and until every little chapel and rural church has made a place in its program for the development of youth there lies before us a challenge and responsibility we cannot escape.

The district is happy to report five new churches and one parsonage home. Near Barbourville a beautiful stone church is being built at the cost of $3,000. This church will be dedicated sometime in October, and will be named The Henderson Chapel.

North Corbin is completing a delightful little frame church that provides six splendid Sunday-school rooms. This building will cost about $3,000.

Felt's Chapel has dedicated a $5,000 brick church and is going forward with new vision and added vigor.

The Cumberland people are worshipping in their new $20,000 plant. Larger church attendance, a bigger and better Sunday school, and a program that serves the community have resulted.

At Black Mountain all the material was bought at wholesale prices through the coal company. The cost of the building was $36,000. It would be hard to find a more beautiful and adequate plant. It provides for a departmentalized Sunday school, kitchen and dining room, social and community hall, together with a steam-heated, electrically-lighted, five-room apartment for the pastor.

Improvements on property have been reported to the extent of $4,916 worth; $7,285 have been paid on old indebtedness.

Throughout the district an effort is being made to encourage systematic giving and use the budget system. Emphasis is given to the teaching of the threefold stewardship of prayer, personality, and possessions.

The prayer meeting is receiving due emphasis with a number of pastors arranging prayer meetings for the young people. Wherever this has been done the response has been most gratifying.

The Boone Trail Union among the Epworth Leagues of Harlan, Middlesboro, Pineville, Barbourville, Corbin, London, and Williamsburg has proven its worth in many ways.

The Institute and School of Missions was held one week too late this summer. The opening of the rural schools materially cut down the attendance, but it was the opinion of all that the spirit of the Institute and the work done was the best.

A splendid and most profitable Pastors' Council was held at Barbourville during the Institute week, with Dr. Guy Crawford instructor.

The work of Union College and the Mountain Mission Schools will no doubt be reported by President Gross and Superintendent Frakes.

The entire district regrets the loss of their capable leader, Rev. J. O. Gross, to whom so much of the credit belongs for the success of this year's work. However, we rejoice because he occupies the presidency of our only Conference college. We wish him the truest type of success; we shall remember him in our prayers and co-operate with him in this larger field of service, and we predict a great future both for him and the institution for which he labors.

COVINGTON DISTRICT

H. E. Trent, District Superintendent

Evangelism.—About the usual number of revival meetings have been held on the district this year with a little larger number of accessions to the church reported. It is expected the net gain in membership will be small, if any, due to careless reporting of statistics and poor shepherding as evidenced by growing non-resident and inactive lists. We take them in the front door of church membership and let them slip out the back door of Paragraph 58 without properly observing the conditions whereby one may be placed on this list. Diligent inquiry has been made at every Quarterly Conference in the interest of correct records of membership.

Dr. Jesse Swank, of the Dayton District, led the churches of northern Kentucky in a high evangelistic endeavor in March, followed in several instances by a week's services in the local church, and an exchange of pulpits each evening during Passion Week.

Young People's Work.—Judging from the fine spirit of the mid-year Epworth League Institute, and the increased enrollment at Ruggles Summer Institute, the Young People's Work is not without interest.

Women's Work.—Ladies' Aid Societies report disbursements all the way from $100 to $2,000 each for the year. "True-hearted, whole-hearted, faithful, and loyal." Added emphasis has been given the social and spiritual activities. The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies are functioning well. The Home Society will have the services of Miss Biber during the month of November.

Men's Work.—Trinity, Covington, and Grace, Newport, have organized men's choruses, which have been assisting at the regular services and responding to some outside calls as well.

Benevolences.—Throughout the year emphasis has been given World Service on apportionment and Pikeville Hospital, with the chief accent on the hospital, following the urgent appeal of Bishop Henderson. We fear World Service proper will suffer at the hands of Pikeville designated gifts and we are glad it is in the minds of the Board of Hospitals to go back to the straight 15 per cent asking, with an additional third of World Service money designated to Pikeville.

District Meetings.—District Conference was royally entertained at Centerville, by Brother Lacks and his good people. Dr. Maurice E. Levitt, of Philadelphia, gave us a breath fresh from the Home Mission field, which put flesh and blood on the World Service dollar, and was delightfully refreshing as contrasted with board statistics with which we are usually bored.

The last public service conducted by Bishop Henderson was held at Shinkle Church in connection with mid-year Epworth League Institute. The Bishop's ringing challenge to life-service decisions, and his plea to "live dangerously but not recklessly for Jesus Christ," still influences us. May God help us to carry on the work so near his heart—Kentucky Methodism.

Material Developments.—Extensive improvements and redecorations have gone forward at Augusta, Bellevue, Centerville, Epworth (Covington, who celebrated their Golden Jubilee), Main Street (Covington), Shinkle (Covington), Trinity (Covington), Union (Covington), Cynthiana (where a new church is soon to be dedicated), Dayton, Centenary Church (Lexington), Grace Church (Newport), Nicholasville, and Southgate.

Ministerial Support.—The average cash salary for the district is $1,528.50, as against $1,088 for the entire Conference. Ministerial support is strictly prorated. Statistical sheets will show few deficiencies. While salaries have been tending to decrease throughout the church, we have been able to hold all gains made thus far.

At the end of three years' service as we report to the 103d session of the Kentucky Annual Conference, we still have reason to be grateful for loyal people with which to work, and a consecrated corps of men with which to accomplish the task of the district.

LOUISVILLE DISTRICT

John L. Tilton, District Superintendent

Bishop H. Lester Smith, D.D., LL.D., and Brethren of the Kentucky Conference:

As one among you, chosen to be superintendent of the Louisville District, I submit this, my first report:

Property.—According to the Journal of 1928 our possessions were eighty-four churches, valued at $199,100, together with twenty-four parsonages, valued at $54,300. We inherited from the Barbourville superintendent's good gift: Sparksville Circuit, with five churches and one parsonage, valued at $9,500. Among these I found not eighty-nine, but ninety churches. Services were being held in eighty-one of these churches a year ago; nine were among the abandoned; one of the number has been revived, and a new building is under way. Therefore, we have ninety churches, with eighty-two of them on the active list. We have twenty-five parsonages.

New church buildings are under construction at Clifty, on the Summit Charge, and at Kessinger, on the Munfordville Circuit. Material improvements have been made this year on the following churches: Beech Creek, redecorated; Bethel, redecorated interior; Bowling Green, reconditioned throughout; Hardinsburg, Taylors' Chapel, redecorated; Onton, redecorated; Epworth, redecorated throughout; Wesley and Trinity Parsonages, redecorated; Paducah, renewed parsonage at a cost of $1,800. Many other charges have done work on buildings as reports will show. There seems on the whole a disposition toward material improvement and progress.

Membership.—This is a matter of no little concern. Our church in Kentucky is about as it was years ago in membership despite all reports of additions. We are good in reports, but poor in actual figures. Louisville District shows a gain of two last year. This year there have been many additions with few funerals, but an actual loss of several hundred will be reported. I have personally gone over many church records. They are so poorly kept that such is a disgrace on our ministry. What farmer or business man would know so little of his stock and be so well content? I am now in possession of most every roll of the district. I can vouch for the reports coming in. We have what is being reported. Let us gain more if we can, but when we do may God help us to look after them.

Benevolences.—Louisville District has not been and is not strong on giving; we seem to like getting best. If it were not for our churches in Louisville, especially Trinity, we would hardly be on the map. I believe that the tide is turning since men like Sims, Logsdon, Harrell, Cissna, Literal, Fort, and others are constantly urging giving as a means of securing His blessing. These men and several others have a growing vision for our district in its benevolent work. Several three-column men (pastor, superintendent, World Service) are showing well on other items as you will note this year.

Layman's Work.—Tom Spurrier, our lay leader, has been heard from this year. Our District Conference launched a plan to reach each church on the district this year with an appeal to the laymen. A key man will be chosen in each church through whom information and stimulation may be given.

Young People.—Western Kentucky is blessed with young folks. Many of our churches are alive with youth. We lack in leadership. Many pastors it, seems, are not aware of their rich field for service. I have insisted on Epworth League work this year. Some work is being done, but all too little in view of the demand.

Woman's Work.—We have loyal women on our field. Some of the best Ladies' Aids in the Conference are among us. Some of the most progressive missionary societies are in Western Kentucky. We have to deal with great distances and, therefore, are strangers among ourselves. Better roads and more interest from Conference and district officers will carry us on in the work of God.

Educational and Redemptive Work.—Some of the finest and best leadership in the world is ours. We have not arrived, but are just beginning. We need education in pulpit and pew. Some of our pastors are growing and desire knowledge. Where this is true our people are being blessed by their minister. The people are also proving a force and blessing to the community. It is our plan to carry out a program for the future that will acquaint our people with the whole church and its needs. We are inviting our workers and leaders to visit among us. We were delighted in the visit of Bishop Smith to Trinity on our Louisville District. The men on Louisville District are evangelistic. Many sections are cut off by flood and mud in winter. We use the summer for revivals. There have been many and we rejoice in them. Souls are being saved, believers are being sanctified through faith in Christ. A real Pentecost is the need and this must begin in our official family.

The Parsonage Family.—We have been smiled upon this year. Little or no sickness has come to the families of our ministry. One of our number is the exception to the rule. I speak of R. W. Huntsman, pastor at Scottsville. This good man of God is a marvel of grace in the midst of much and constant suffering. He has worked faithfully against all odds and, thanks to God, he lives and smiles.

The fellowship of our men and of myself in their homes has been the joy of every day, where can greater manifestations of love be known than in the group of a district family? We have not always pleased one another nor even ourselves, but we have loved and are in love. Some changes will come, adjustments will be made, but we register our conviction that the men who are with the district will be found at work, and smiling wherever they may be called or sent to serve.

(b) COMMITTEES

REPORT ON WORLD SERVICE

It is a matter for congratulation and rejoicing that Kentucky Conference, in the face of great difficulties, shows an increase of $1,192 in its regular World Service giving as compared with 1928. This is an advance of 5.2 per cent. If the whole church had done as well in point of increase there would be no October emergency appeal.

In 1930 the Christian world is celebrating the nineteen hundredth anniversary of Pentecost. In the practical results of this celebration the church ought to register in its world program support so that the Pentecostal year shall be characterized by something material. To this end we pledge ourselves to certain practical activities to meet our own part of the task:

1. The cultivation of the individual to the end that every member shall become an intelligent supporter of "World Service."

- (a) By the largest possible circulation of "World Service News," seeing to it that every person giving five dollars or over is on the mailing list in Chicago.

- (b) By the careful distribution of the splendid pamphlet literature furnished free by the World Service Commission.

- (c) By full co-operation with the Board of Foreign Missions in its cultivation program in the Cincinnati Area this year.

- (d) By the regular presentation of World Service activities in carefully prepared sermons at least once each quarter.

- (e) By an individual canvass (by the pastor, if necessary) to secure a real contribution for World Service from each member.

The October emergency is upon us. We are facing another crisis. We must not realize the disaster of deficit that at this moment is facing the church. Kentucky Conference therefore pledges itself to observe the two designated days in October for the purpose of vigorously promoting World Service giving.

2. Rally Day, October 6, next Sunday we will secure the largest possible gifts for the Board of Sunday Schools. The amount thus raised will help to swell the appropriation possibilities, furnish funds for religious-education promotion within our Conference, and secure World Service credit for the full amount of the collections.

3. Missionary Day has been set for October 13, with October 20 as an alternative if desired. We will faithfully observe this day and do our best by this and other means to secure a World Service offering at least equal to our remittances for October of last year.

This Conference has pledged itself to attempt to raise its whole quota for Pikeville Hospital capital fund before next Conference. If we meant it when we pledged ourselves to designate only one third of our entire World Service to Pikeville Hospital, it will be necessary for us to have an average offering of not eighty-seven cents and one mill as this year for World Service, but at least two and one-half times that or two dollars and twenty cents a member.

Brothers, this is what we promised to do. No church must be in the blank column next year! No one should give less than a dollar a member, and many should give two, three, four, and five dollars per member. We can do it if we will.

To do this we promise to budget the total amount needed from our respective charges and make an enthusiastic and persistent attempt to get the amounts indicated month by month and to let no quarter pass without our full quarterly portion having been forwarded to the World Service treasury.

Jesus wrote the first chapter of the history of the church in his own blood. We are his ministers and, in writing our chapter, we will not fail him in sacrificial giving and sacrificial service.

JOHN LOWE FORT,
J. T. MARTIN,
THOS. B. ASHLEY,
Committee.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

As a Conference we rejoice in the renewed emphasis being placed upon Christian and religious education throughout our Conference. There never was a time when so much money has been invested for educational purposes and when the matter of public education has received such expert attention. We rejoice that during the last few years our own Conference has seen such wonderful progress along educational lines. Not only have our well-known educational institutions been better equipped, they are ceasing to be mere local institutions and are reaching out and touching deeply the life of communities hitherto inaccessible to their influence. We look with pride upon the very important work being done through our new settlement schools located at strategic points within the bounds of our Conference, and visualize for them a steady development.

We would call attention to the fact that the education of the children and youth of our day is not altogether determined by schools and colleges, vital as they are. An indispensable factor in the religious and mental development of the child is the Christian home. Hence, we would urge our people to give particular attention to the home as a factor in Christian education. Since the earliest impressions seem to be the most permanent, the child should begin his education under the most conducive environment. If the child is denied the advantage of a normal religious and educational environment, he has lost something that no college can secure for him. Education should have to do with all of life and not a part.

RESOLUTIONS

It is the business of a Committee on Resolutions to endeavor to express in words, inadequate as they are for this purpose, the heartfelt thanks of the body it serves for the many fine things that are done to make the gathering of that organization enjoyable and profitable to all concerned. To the extent that it is possible to make such a verbal expression, your Committee on Resolutions wishes to call particular attention to the following items:

1. Entertainment.—The pastor and people of historic Union Church, Covington, and also those of co-operating churches in northern Kentucky have proved themselves rare hosts. Dr. and Mrs. Homer Baumgardner have made our stay at the seat of the 103d Annual Conference very pleasant indeed. The meals served by the several Ladies' Aid Societies were excellent and wholesome and well worthy of special mention in these resolutions. Assignments for entertainment in northern Kentucky homes were arranged personally by Mrs. Baumgardner and Miss Naomi Jett, office secretary. Office facilities, with use of telephone and the assistance of a typist, were much appreciated.

2. Music.—The unusually fine musical treats furnished by the Jubilee Singers, by Signor Mario Capelli, by the Ministers' Wives Choir, of Cincinnati; the male quartette, of Asbury College; by Mr. A. D. Shockley, Jr., and by several choirs of the co-operating churches were, at say the least, high points in the Conference program.

3. Committee Rooms.—Facilities extended by Scott Street Methodist Episcopal Church, South, made committee work possible without overcrowding or inconveniences. We are grateful for this courtesy.

4. The Press.—We desire to place on record our great appreciation of the splendid daily reports and news of the Conference, published in the Kentucky editions of the "Enquirer," "Times-Star," and "Post."

5. Connectional Visitors.—When all is said and done, visitations by connectional leaders of the church are greatly appreciated and stimulating to our Kentucky work. We truly appreciated the presence at this session of the Conference of Dr. William S. Bovard, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Education, and of Dr. John R. Edwards, Senior Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions. We also appreciated the brief addresses by Dr. Edward S. Lewis, in charge of Church School Publications, and by Prof. W. M. Gilbert, of Drew Theological Seminary.

6. Director of Religious Education.—A special paragraph might well be used to express our appreciation of the visit of the Rev. Cecil D. Smith, our new Area Director of Religious Education. The Kentucky Conference will fall in line with the program of advance in this important field of endeavor.

7. Inspirational Speakers.—The afternoon inspirational hours furnished by Dr. Orin W. Fifer, Superintendent of the Indianapolis District, will not soon be forgotten. His messages to Kentucky ministers and supply pastors were both practical and challenging. The address on "The Salvaging of Civilization," by President Larkin B. Bowers, of Kansas Wesleyan University, was profound and scholarly and highly appreciated. Friday's high lights were the addresses by the inimitable Merton S. Rice, distinguished Detroit pastor and orator. It would be difficult to praise these addresses too highly. Mr. E. Dow Bancroft, genial layman and "brother-in-law of the Kentucky Conference," gave us an illuminating exposition of the work of the Methodist Brotherhood. Nor must the women leaders be overlooked. Mrs. E. C. Turley, Mrs. L. J. Godbey, and Mrs. A. B. Cornett represented the woman's missionary societies most creditably, as did also the Rev. L. D. Rounds, speaking at the anniversary of the Foreign Society.

8. Our Presiding Officer.—Last, but by no means least, should be mentioned the capable leadership and fine fellowship of Bishop H. Lester Smith. When a year ago our resolutions were drafted, we had with us Bishop Theodore S. Henderson. Since then we have lost that valiant leader, and our hearts are grieved. May Bishop Smith, however, be assured that he has already won a place in the affections of all members of the Kentucky Annual Conference. We shall be most happy to welcome him again as presiding officer.

For all courtesies and happy occasions that your committee may have overlooked in this necessarily brief statement, we express our sincere thanks. Truly the annual sessions of our Conference, in spite of the daily grind, are a means of spiritual refreshment and undergirding as we go out into the field to win men for Jesus Christ and to build up his Kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,

F. H. LARABEE,
J. M. LITERAL,
L. B. PHIFER,

Committee.

8. That Rev. J. E. Walter be appointed as field representative of the Kentucky Mountain Work to serve without salary, but only expenses, for the ensuing few months.

9. That a Board of Managers be constituted for the Kentucky Mountain Work, consisting of three members from each Annual Conference: one District Superintendent, one pastor, and one layman from each, and that this committee shall have entire charge of the promotion and policy of the work, under the administration of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. Further, that there be included in this Board of Managers "ex-officio," the chairman of the Area Council Executive Committee, the superintendent of the mountain work, the Area Secretary, and the Rev. Dr. F. W. Mueller, representing the home board.

The committee nominates the following members: Ohio Conference, Dr. Arba Martin, Dr. T. H. Campbell, and Mr. E. C. Harley; North-East Ohio: Dr. W. E. Hammaker, Dr. Battelle McCarty, and Mr. W. A. Walls; Kentucky Conference: Dr. J. L. Fort, the superintendent of the Barbourville District, and Mr. A. S. Bennett.

10. That inasmuch as the property in our settlement schools is owned by the Board of Home Missions, we recommend that the Annual Conferences request the Home Board to arrange for including the Kentucky work among definite World Service projects, so that full and unconditional World Service credit may be given for all contributions to the mountain work, through the Lincoln Day Fund offerings and otherwise.

11. The area budget:

Area Office.....	$6,000 00
Student Centers.....	10,800 00
Rural Extension.....	2,500 00
Summer School of Ministerial Training...	2,000 00

Total..... $21,300 00

12. Ad interim authority: That the Annual Conferences be requested to give authority to the Area Council, to act ad interim for the Conferences in all distinctively area matters.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON REFORMS

While grateful for the progress of prohibition, we feel that eternal vigilance is the price of complete victory. That which has taken one hundred and forty years for the citizens of the United States to achieve, and which was written into the fundamental law of this nation in 1919, must be guarded against those who not only desire to repeal the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Law, but failing in this, would bring about the nullification of the law.

Inimical to the progress of prohibition is the front-page publicity of many of our metropolitan newspapers in giving the public much misleading propaganda of the liquor forces. The cause of law enforcement could be better served by less publicity of occasional failure of enforcement and more notice given of the success of law enforcement. We commend the press where it has placed the truth before the reading public.

We disapprove the merchandising practice in which prominence is given the materials for the manufacture of so-called "home brew," and the utensils for its manufacture, and containers for this or any other kind of the intoxicating beverages, all of which tends to popularize connivance with the breakdown of the observance and enforcement of the law.

We register our conviction that legislation should be asked of our State legislature covering the following points:

"(a) The prohibition of the granting of prescriptions for liquor by physicians and the sale of liquor in drug stores.

"(b) The regulation of the sale of industrial alcohol, denatured alcohol, wood alcohol, and other forms of alcohol now used by the drinking public. This regulation should be so stringent as to require a complete record of every sale with heavy penalties for sale where there is reason to believe the alcohol is to be used for drinking purposes.

"(c) The prohibition of the sale or advertising of malt products and other ingredients particularly used in the making of so-called 'home brew'; and

"(d) The increase of penalties for the violation of the provisions of our State law against the sale of liquor."

Our nation is to be congratulated in having as its executive a man who observes the prohibition law himself, and is also committed to the enforcement of the law.

We commend President Hoover's statement in his inaugural address when he said:

"I have been selected by you to execute and enforce the laws of the country. I propose to do so to the extent of my own abilities, but the measure of success that the government shall attain will depend upon the moral support which you, as citizens, extend."

We find encouragement in this statement from our President, and we pledge our co-operation in this effort of law enforcement, and call upon all citizens to support him in his stand on this issue.

We would further commend President Hoover's proposal to make the national capital a model for prohibition law enforcement and would propose sending him a letter of commendation.

We urge all our pastors to seek the observance of Temperance Day, the fourth Friday in October in our public schools, and we will seek the observance of World's Temperance Sunday, November 3d, in our churches.

We look with much concern upon the growing increase in Sabbath desecration. The church of Christ must conserve intact the Sabbath. Our people must learn that while it may seem the only day upon which some may take their diversions, yet it is the only day our people may attend worship. Without the Sabbath the church's future is in great and grave jeopardy. For the effort and influence of the Lord's Day Alliance in the effort to conserve our Sabbath we are most grateful and offer it our co-operation.

In ever-increasing numbers the people are attending the moving-picture shows. Great possibilities lie in this instrument of education. We wish to decry the sex appeal and misrepresentation too often found in our movies, and trust that we might encourage sentiment for better movies.

The increasing amount of salacious literature is a great concern for all who desire that our youth shall "grow up in the fear and admonition of the Lord." How much better it is to find some of our own publications, such as the Advocate and the Epworth Herald, within the reach of our people!

The vicious, untruthful, and misleading advertising of tobacco on billboards which disfigure our public highways and use of the radio, the newspapers, and the magazine in this pernicious advertising is most deplorable. Those who would seek to advertise the use of tobacco, especially of cigarettes, as responsible for all our artists and athletes, will have a serious sin for which to answer in the misleading of our boys and girls in that habit, that is not productive in anything but lifelong regrets.

D. C. JOHNSON,
J. L. FORT,
G. M. HAGGARD,
H. G. MURRELL,

Memoirs

REV. JOHN CHEAP

The Rev. John Cheap, the subject of this sketch, was born November 2, 1858, in Ashland, Kentucky. When he was a small boy his father moved to New Albany, Indiana. He made his home with his sister, Mrs. Louis Bir, who was a mother to him, his mother having died in Ashland when he was about five years old. They sent him to school in Louisville, Kentucky, where he completed the literary course offered by the Kentucky Institution for the Blind. After graduating from there he took a correspondence course. He was a charter member of the Chautauqua System of Education, which was a system of home study established in connection with the summer schools assembled at Chautauqua, New York, by Bishop J. H. Vincent. He was a great reader of the very best literature that could be had and one of the best posted men in Methodism.

Brother Cheap's parents were Roman Catholics, and also his relatives. But, as he could never believe Catholicism he became an agnostic for some years during the time of his young manhood. Fortunately for him, through his love for books and his desire for knowledge, he came in contact with an old retired Methodist minister, whom he called "Father" Daniel, and they became fast friends. Father Daniel had a great influence over him religiously and persuaded him to attend church. He attended a Methodist revival and Father Daniel took advantage of his opportunity, did some personal work, and led John Cheap to the altar, where he prayed through and was gloriously converted. As he was ever an unbiased thinker and open for and really seeking the truth, therefore, he found it, and became a devout, consecrated follower of Jesus Christ. He united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and in a very short time was appointed class leader of one of the classes in Centenary Church, New Albany, Indiana. He became very active in all church affairs.

He came back to Ashland in two or three years after his conversion to make his home. He was licensed as a local preacher for a short time and then united with the Kentucky Conference in 1888 at Louisville, Kentucky, presided over by Bishop J. H. Vincent. His first work was the Wallingford Circuit, which included parts of three counties at that time. He also served the following charges and churches: East Maysville, Greenup, Salt Lick, Pollard (now Second Church, Ashland), Paintsville, Louisa, Germantown, Olive Hill, Middlesboro, London, Bethelridge, Salt Lick (second time), Advance, Louisa (second time), and Salt Lick (third time).

While on his first charge at Wallingford he married Miss Hattie Hinton, to which union were born three children, two of whom survive him, one having died in infancy. After having been married ten years his wife died, leaving him with two small children. On June 4, 1903, when he was a pastor at Louisa the first time, he married Miss Sue G. Holt. To this union were born four children, two of whom died in infancy. The surviving children are Mrs. R. G. Huey, of Flemingsburg, Kentucky; Cranston H. Cheap, of Salt Lick, Kentucky; Mrs. Emerson Cobb, and Venus Gay Cheap, with her mother at Barbourville.

Two years ago last fall at Maysville, Brother Cheap asked to be placed on the retired list. After spending one year in this relation, he went to Salt Lick as a supply, and served faithfully and very acceptably up to the time of his death. He passed to his reward on Sunday morning, January 6, 1929, surrounded by his loved ones, members, and friends. He was a strong preacher of the Word, a splendid pastor, and a tireless worker. He was a wonderful friend, who never failed his friends and always remained true to them. It could truly be said of him that he was a devout, loving, and lovable husband and father.

Funeral services were held at Salt Lick and at First Church, Ashland, January 8, 1929. His district superintendent, Rev. E. R. Overley in charge.

MRS. MARGARET THOMPSON DOVER

Mrs. Margaret Thompson Dover was born in Durham County, England, October 1, 1851. She departed this life October 22, 1928. Aged seventy-seven years, twenty-two days.

Mrs. Dover was the widow of the late Rev. J. G. Dover, who departed this life June 10, 1923. She was in the active ministry with her husband for thirty-eight years. Much of her husband's success was due to her spirit of unselfish service.

Mrs. Dover was confined to her room several months before she went away. She was patient in her suffering. It was a benediction to be in her presence.

She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Charles York, Dayton, Ky.; and a son, Mr. Arthur Dover, Louisville, Ky.

Funeral service was held at Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church, Bellevue, Ky. The service was in charge of Rev. S. C. Rice. The following ministers had part in the service or acted as pallbearers: Revs. J. H. Lyon, A. H. Davis, T. B. Stratton, E. M. Rose, W. S. Peters, G. M. Haggard, W. C. Stewart, J. T. Martin, H. S. Baumgardner, H. E. Trent, and J. N. Ervin.

Mrs. Margaret Dover

MRS. NANNIE C. RAGAN

Mrs. Nannie C. Ragan passed to her reward on October 26, 1928, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Haggard, at Wheelersburg, Ohio, where she and her husband had gone for a visit.

Her illness was brief and the end came speedily. "Heaven opened wide her enduring gates," and she entered in.

Mrs. Ragan was the daughter of James and Martha Coffee; she was born February 10, 1857. At the age of twelve in a Methodist meeting held at the Coffee Schoolhouse near Stanford, Kentucky, under the preaching of John O. Southerland, she sought and found the Christ of God as her Saviour, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. On July 14, 1878, she was united in marriage to Rev. John G. Ragan, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and with him went to his pastorate at Crab Orchard, Kentucky, and served with him in that church until 1884, when she led him to the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, where she with her husband gave thirty-two years of active service to the building of the kingdom Jesus. Christ. Mrs. Ragan gave fifty years in service as the wife of a Methodist preacher.

Her deeply spiritual nature made her an ideal wife for an itinerant Methodist minister. She possessed a tranquil but radiant personality and carried sunshine wherever she went. Her presence in the home when sorrow and illness entered was like a benediction, soothing and comforting. Her faith and trust in God was unwavering, and she kept the altar fires in her home burning brightly.

Her children felt the influence of her prayers for them through childhood and maturity, guarding and shielding them from danger and temptation. Two of her sons entered the Methodist ministry. Mrs. Ragan was a musician with a well-trained voice. Many were led to Jesus by her songs. Her faith in the atoning blood and the forgiveness of sins made her very effective in personal work. She possessed that insight to the need of the hungry heart whereby she was able to lead them to the light. Many found the Saviour when she was in song and prayer at the altar.

She was the mother of seven children—four sons and three daughters. On July 14, 1929, she went with her husband to the Coffee homestead near Stanford, Kentucky, to observe their golden wedding anniversary. There were present the seven children, twenty-nine grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. Sister Ragan was the first of the family to be relieved of the burdens of this life.

The funeral services were held at Wheelersburg, Ohio, by Rev. A. H. Davis, after which the body was taken to Lexington, Kentucky, when final memorial services were conducted in Centenary Methodist Church by Rev. James M. Melear, assisted by the Rev. Ivor Hyndman, then the body was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery of that city, to await the trumpet call—to meet her Lord in the air.

“Sister, thou wast mild and lovely,
Gentle as the summer breeze,
Pleasant as the air of evening,
When it floats among the trees.

“Peaceful be thy silent slumber
Peaceful in the grave so low;
Thou no more wilt join our number,
Thou no more our songs shalt know.

“Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled;
Then in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.”

Roll of Our Honored Dead.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."—Rev. xiv, 13.

The first Conference in Kentucky was held in 1790; but the work in Kentucky was not set apart as the Kentucky Conference till 1821. Meanwhile, death was claiming its own among the preachers. DIRECTIONS FOR STUDENTS AND EXAMINERS

1. The numbers 1, 2, etc., indicate the division of work among the examiners.

2. The recommendation of the Discipline (619) to establish a midyear institute for undergraduates has been met by the Conferences of the Cincinnati Area by establishing a Summer School of Theology at Delaware, Ohio, convening during the month of June each year. All undergraduates are required to attend this Summer School of Theology and to take all their examinations there, except those in attendance at one of our schools. Classes are formed in all studies on which examinations are required in the four years of the Conference course.

3. All required written work in the books to be studied must be completed and in the hands of the Registrar before the opening date of the School of Theology. No student will be permitted to enroll in the school who has not completed this written work before the opening day and had same graded by Conference Examiner. Grade on work must be sent by him to Registrar and be recorded by that time.

4. No examinations will be given at the Annual Conference to the men in the four-year course of study, except by special permission of the Conference on the recommendation of the Board of Examiners, and that only on account of sickness or some other urgent cause.

5. All written work on the collateral subjects must be in the hands of the Examiners fifteen days before the Conference opens. No written work will be accepted after the session opens, and students who fail to comply with this rule will be conditioned on the subjects, unless a convincing reason is presented.

6. Students wishing to substitute work done in one of our schools for the studies in the Conference course shall present their credits to the Registrar. (See Paragraph 618.)

7. When a preacher in full connection fails to be advanced in his work in the Conference course of study for a given year, said year shall not be counted as year of effective service unless he is in attendance upon a standard school or is excused by a two-thirds vote of his Conference upon the recommendation of the Board of Examiners. (Paragraph 617, Section 4.)

8. No candidate shall be permitted to remain longer than four consecutive years on trial nor longer than eight consecutive years in the course of study after being admitted on trial, unless extension of time shall be recommended by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Examiners and authorized by a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference. Failure to complete the first two years of the course of study within four years shall automatically discontinue the candidate on trial, and failure to complete the entire four years of the course of study within eight years shall automatically locate a member of the Conference, unless extension of time shall be granted as indicated above. In no case shall a person be permitted to remain longer than ten years in the course of study. (Paragraph 617, Section 5.)

9. Candidates for admission on trial may receive instruction at the Summer School of Theology and take the examinations there, but such an arrangement shall not deprive any candidate for admission on trial from being examined at the seat and time of the Annual Conference. Candidates for admission on trial who were unable to attend the School of Theology are required to take such examinations at seat of Annual Conference on morning of day before the Conference convenes.

10. The Board of Examiners shall convene at the seat and time of the Annual Conference the day before the session opens, to review and complete the work of the year and arrange for the work of the year to come. (Paragraph 619, Section 6.)

11. Local preachers who are candidates for local deacons' or elders' orders are required to take the subjects as outlined by the Discipline. Studies and Examiners are included in this section of the Minutes.

RUGGLES CAMP

J. O. GROSS
Dean of the Institute

This time-honored camp retains its place in the love and affection, and in the plans of hundreds of people. The sessions of 1929 were attended by more than forty ministers, five hundred campers, and thousands of visitors, all of whom testify, "The Best Ever." This is because Ruggles is an ideal camp and presents a program of the best talent in Methodism.

For 1930 the same careful attention will be exercised in securing talent for the various meetings. Nothing will hinder a more successful meeting next summer, unless it be the failure of our pastors to become boosters for Ruggles. The proper authorities have guaranteed good roads for next year, so begin planning right off to send large delegations of young and old to this place of inspiration, recreation, and happy fellowships.

PROGRAM

Fourth of July—Patriotic celebration under auspices of Old Settlers' Association. Music, oratory, and a general good time.

Campmeeting.—July 25th to August 3d. District Superintendents E. R. Overley and Howard E. Trent will have charge of these evangelistic services, with an outstanding evangelist to preach.

Epworth League Institute.—August 4th to 10th. Rev. John O. Gross, President of Union College, will be dean of this ninth institute to be held at Ruggles. Many new attractions will be ready for next year. One hundred and sixty-five young people registered last year. Make it two hundred for Doctor Gross' first year as dean.
